

Student Application to Reproduce Published Material

Cranfield University, Cranfield Soil and AgriFood Institute (CU/CSAFI), formerly the Soil Survey and Land Research Centre, wishes to encourage the use of soil information in education and research and is therefore willing to allow students to reproduce limited amounts of information from its published reports and maps. All such material remains the intellectual property and copyright of Cranfield University. The right to reproduce CU/CSAFI information is granted on the basis that the information will not be used for any purpose other than the project identified below, will not be used for commercial gain and that any digital copies will be destroyed on completion of the stated project. A student wishing to make use of this facility should complete this form, have it signed by his/her supervisor/tutor and return it to CSAFI, in order to become a registered student-user of CSAFI information. CU/CSAFI reserves the right to request a copy of the project thesis and any other output containing CU/CSAFI information. CU/CSAFI gives no warranty or representation as to the fitness for purpose of the information. Acceptance of the application will be confirmed in writing.

---

Name:

University/college:

Address:

Post code:

Tel:

Fax:

E-mail address:

Title of project:

Project sponsor:

Describe the CSAFI material you wish to reproduce and use (if you wish to copy a part of a map, indicate the area in km sq, the source map and corner co-ordinates):

If you wish the material to form part of a thesis report or wish to include it in a published paper or report, please give details:

